

XM satellite radio is great, the traffic and weather stations have saved me a couple of times. I pay money for these services and you should not be able to take them away. So please reject NAB's petition 04-160. They have just as much of a right to broadcast weather and traffic as anyone else does.